MAY CREEK CLUB, INC.

ARTICLE I
Purpose

SECTION 1: This corporation shall be conducted as a non-profit corporation for the purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

SECTION 2: The purpose for which this corporation was created may be altered, modified, enlarged or diminished by a vote of a majority of the membership at a meeting duly called for such purpose.

ARTICLE II

Enforcement of restrictions, rules and regulations may be by the corporation, the county, or both.

SECTION 2: Membership shall be inseparably appurtenant to the lot owned or being purchased by the members, and upon the transfer of ownership or the making of a contract for the sale of such lot, the membership appurtenant thereto shall be deemed to be transferred to the contract purchaser or grantee. A member in good standing may appoint a designee to represent them in voting and/or as a member of the Board of Directors. No membership may be conveyed or transferred in any other way inter vivos. In the event of the death of a member, their membership passes in the same manner and to the same persons as does the property itself. Membership may be terminated at any time at the option of the member holding such membership. Regardless of any option to terminate membership, all lot owners within May Creek Mountain View Tracts remain subject to payment of fees and assessments as prescribed in Article XI.

SECTION 3: Lot owners shall be limited to one membership regardless of the number of the lots so owned and the interest of each member shall be equal to that of any other member, and no member can acquire any interest which shall entitle them to any greater vote or authority in the corporation than any other member. If any lot or lots are owned in common by two or more persons, they are entitled to cast one vote. The vote for any membership owned by a group may be cast by any group member, with the proper identification, without presentation of authority from the other(s) and the person casting the vote shall be deemed to have cast the vote with the consent of other person(s) comprising the group.

ARTICLE III

Meetings

SECTION 1: The membership meetings of the corporation shall be held at a reasonable date, place and time as the Board of Directors may designate. A meeting place picked by the Directors is presumptively a reasonable place. Failure to hold a membership meeting does not cause a forfeiture or give cause for dissolution of the Association, nor does it invalidate or affect otherwise valid Association acts. Notice thereof shall be given by the Secretary, in writing, postage prepaid, by U.S. mail to the address of each member appearing on the books of the corporation, or via email as long as that member has consented to receive notices by electronic transmission. The mailing date thereof to be not less than fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting.

SECTION 2: It is the responsibility of each member to maintain a current mailing address with the corporation and failure to do so will be deemed a waiver of all notice requirements. Members may also provide an email address to receive notices at. If more than one means of communication is provided, the email address will be preferred. All email communications require, by Washington State law, a reply or receipt of delivery to be considered delivered. In the event of no response, physical mail will be sent as well.

SECTION 3: At the end of a meeting of the membership, the members shall elect directors as herein provided and transact such other business as may properly come before them.

SECTION 4: Special meetings of the members of the corporation may be called at any time by the Board of Directors, or the President, or the Secretary. Any ten (10) members in good standing upon written request to the Secretary, stating the purpose(s) for the special meeting, may call a special meeting of the membership. Prior to the Secretary calling the special meeting, all signees of the written request must be present at a meeting called within fifteen (15) days of submitting the written request with the Board of Directors. The reasons for the special meeting will be discussed. If the reasons for the special meeting cannot be settled to the satisfaction of the majority of the petitioners submitting the request, the Secretary shall call a special meeting. Notice of the special meeting shall state the purpose(s) thereof and shall be given by the Secretary to all members in the same manner as notice is given of the membership meetings.

SECTION 5: At all semi-annual and special meetings of the membership of the corporation twenty (20) members in good standing present in person or by mail ballot or written proxy shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business appropriate to a member's meeting. A majority of the votes of the members constituting a quorum shall be sufficient to transact business unless a greater number of votes is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these By-Laws with respect to some specified action.

SECTION 6: All members who are delinquent thirty (30) days or more in the payment of any dues or special assessments or are otherwise not in good standing shall not be entitled to vote on any corporation matters until such delinquency is cured.

SECTION 7: Notwithstanding Article II, Section 3 of these By-Laws, members may cast votes either in person, by mail, or by proxy. Mail ballots that are postmarked on or before the date of the vote shall count for quorum and voting purposes, unless the member also attended and voted in person or by proxy, in which case the in person or proxy vote will supersede the mailed ballot. Proxies shall be executed in writing by the member or their attorney-in-fact and filed with the Secretary of the corporation before or at the time of the meeting. Unless otherwise provided in the proxy, a proxy shall be invalid after five (5) months from the date of its execution.

A written waiver of notice signed by the Director, whether before or after the time fixed for the required notice, or the presence of the Director at the meeting without formal objection on the ground of want of notice, shall be deemed the equivalent of the required notice for all purposes. Any May Creek Club board member who misses three (3) meetings in any fiscal year, automatically relinquishes their seat on the May Creek Club Board of Directors. Further, any and all exceptions to the above must be submitted, in writing, to the May Creek Club board for evaluation and must have a majority of the votes of the above-mentioned Board of Directors.
